WEDDING STATIONERY

Different Types of Paper we offer...

It's not just about how wedding stationery looks. It's also about how it feels in your hands. Different paper types have different textures, colours and thickness'. All of these impact how the stationery prints and can further enhance your chosen theme.

For example, a more rustic wedding may benefit from using 'Kraft paper'. Whereas a more modern themed wedding may benefit from using a paper type such as 'Conquerer wove'. You don't need to stick to one type when choosing your Stationery, feel free to mix and match for your different items!

Silk

Silk-coated paper that's sleek to the touch. A classic option for all stationery. It has a slight sheen to it which gives your stationery a vibrant and crisp appearance but softer than full high-shine gloss. Fully writable with a ball point pen. The lowest print cost option.

Uncoated

This is classic printer paper. It has a rougher texture than coated stocks, which means it's perfect for writing on as it is more porous and quickly absorbs ink for a dry, smudge-free finish. Thicker uncoated stocks are used for cards.

Recycled

A thick uncoated stock with a quality and ink absorbency that matches most classic uncoated stocks. Made from 100% recycled fibres. A slightly rough, porous paper for smudge-free finish - perfect for anything you might need to write on and helps the environment.

Kraft

A natural brown paper stock with an earthy texture that's strong and tear-resistant. It gives a rustic, hand-crafted feel to your stationery. Due to its naturally dark shade, it is important to keep in mind when using Kraft paper that it will affect the colour of the ink that's applied.

Conqueror Wove

A lightly textured, bright white stock that's uncoated for easy writing making it ideal for premium stationery and cards. It has a naturally matt finish and is soft to the touch thanks to the wove finish, giving those who hold it a sense of luxury.

Mowhawk Felt Cream

The most textured paper we use, this is an impressive cream card with a mottled texture throughout. It's uncoated in texture meaning it's a rougher, porous stock. This also means it absorbs ink well and quickly for smudge-free writing.

Tintoretto

This stock is felt-marked in texture, similar to an artist's sketchpad. Great for artsy and illustrated designs. As it's uncoated, it feels slightly rougher to run your hand over than a silk coated card but it has better ink absorption, making it perfect for writing on.

Woodstock Pulp

A thinner card that features unbleached wood pulp, meaning you can see specks of brown running through the white stock for an authentic appearance. Keep designs minimum to show it off! Uncoated and writable, making it great for stationery, cards and invites with an edge.
